PINAO-In this city, July 24, 1908, Mrs. Keoho Pinao and infant, wife and infant of Sam Pinao,

A Chicago art dealer was talking about the wrath of William T. Evas, the New York collector, upon vice. whom, it is alleged, so many bogus paintings have been imposed. "He's awfully angry," said the art dealer, repressing a smile. "Some of his costliest pictures, you know, have been declared fakes. His blood botls when he thinks of the way he has been duped. He told me the other day that he could hardly understand the rage that possessed him against. every petty, little, insignificant dealor that had cheated him. He said it was like the rage of a watter that he had noted one afternoon at luncheon. At luncheen, Mr. Evans said, he called his waiter's attention to dead fly in some dish or other. The walter, as he took the dish away, muttered with a malevolent look at the limp insect: 'I'd give a two-dollar bill if I could know for certain 1968, both dates included. that this was the fly that's been buzzing about my nose all the morn-
